GENERAL INFORMATION

RESIDENCE

Course members will reside at the Staverton Park Conference Centre and should arrive by 5.00pm on Sunday 11 October 2009. Please note that the Course Opening and Welcoming will be at 7.30pm. If personal circumstances make this impossible, please advise The Refereeing Department at The Football Association immediately.

The Staverton Park Conference Centre is situated near Daventry in Northamptonshire. All rooms are en suite for single occupancy and have tea/coffee making facilities as well as a desk and colour television with sky channels. There are also 13 amp sockets and a shaver point in each bedroom as well as an alarm clock / radio. There is also a direct dialling facility which allows you to receive phone calls direct to your bedroom. Please note that International Dialling from the Conference Centre is very expensive. There is also a pay phone nearby if you wish to use one.

FIRE EVACUATION PROCEDURES

On hearing a continuous fire alarm siren, please make your way to the Car Park at the front of the building and report to your Group Instructor. Fire exits are clearly marked. If you are not staying for the evening, please inform your Group Instructor. All Group Instructors must ensure all their group are accounted for and report to the Ray Olivier.

SMOKING

The Centre regulations regarding smoking must be followed at all times. Staverton Park (indoors) is a strictly 'No Smoking' venue. Smoking is not permitted in the building at any time.

FIRST AID

Staverton Park has a number of qualified First Aid Personnel on duty 24 hours. Please contact Reception if you require any assistance.

LEISURE FACILITIES

Staverton Park is set in beautiful countryside in middle England and offers numerous leisure facilities including gymnasium, swimming pool and a 18 hole golf course. For those who prefer more gentle exercise our landscaped grounds is the perfect setting for a leisurely stroll.

Facilities also include football pitches in the village of Staverton some 10 minutes walk from the centre. The gymnasium is open from 6am until 10pm and boasts excellent cardiovascular and weight training equipment, it also has its own male and female changing room facilities.

MEALS:

Breakfast: From 7.00am [Sunday from 7.30am]
Lunch: See times in Course Programme
Dinner: From 7.00pm

Breaks: There are refreshment stations at various locations around the Centre and your Group Instructor will make the necessary arrangements for you to take advantage of these at appropriate times in the programme.

Meals will generally be served in the main dining room but there may be changes from time to time during the week and your Group Instructor will keep you informed of these as and when they happen.

DRESS CODE

International guests are invited to wear their National Dress or lounge suite and tie for the end of Course Dinner on Saturday 17th October 2009. At all other times on the course, shirts, plain polo shirts and tracksuit bottoms or trousers can be worn. It is recommended that you bring with you suitable attire for participation in outdoor sessions (tracksuits, shorts and suitable footwear/football boots and appropriate rainwear).

TEACHING AIDS

All teaching aids will be provided by The Football Association.

A multi-media projector, TV monitor, overhead projector, screen, flipchart and a velcro and magnetic model field will be available in each teaching room.

There is an Internet Café available for your use free of charge. The hotel has free wireless connection throughout the main building but not in bedrooms should you wish to use any personal computers.

GROUP AND COURSE PHOTOGRAPHS

Monday 12 October 2009 at 1.40pm prompt.

PUNCTUALITY

Members of the course are expected to be in the right place ready to start at the scheduled time for all lectures. This applies to either when presenting or as a member of the audience.

PERSONAL ACCOUNTS

Members of the course must settle their own accounts prior to leaving on Sunday morning.

PHOTOCOPYING

Hotel photocopying is very expensive and a limited photocopying service will be made available. Please contact the Administration Support Staff who will consider your request. Course members may use the equipment in the Internet Café to print off documents for their personal use. There is no charge for this service.

EVALUATION FORMS

These will be available at the start of the Course – we ask that you provide us with your feedback on how the course was for you and did the course meet your requirements. Please hand them to Ray Olivier prior to departure from Staverton Park.
